 Jim was sitting on the well curbing one evening when his new neighbor on the farm to the east called on him. They sat together for a few minutes, passing the time of day.

Then the newcomer asked "what kind of neighbors do you have down here?"

Jim withdrew his pipe & viewed the <sup>roof</sup> corner of the barn for a moment before he <sup>replied</sup> ~~finally he asked~~ "what kind a neighbors did y'e have where y'e come from?"

"Neighbors! why they was the meanest, overiest, quarrelin' set I ever did see. Allus <sup>fightin'</sup> ~~arguin'~~ over <sup>stray</sup> cattle, <sup>sheep</sup> killin', broken fences, <sup>stray dogs</sup> ~~and~~ <sup>an' the like.</sup>"

"Well," said Jim with finality, "that's just the kinda neighbors you'll find down here."
